The City Clerk reported that in preparing the tax roll the assessment of the property of G. L. Meissner was inadvertently omitted from the roll. Upon motion of Trustee Keeney, seconded by Trustee Folendorf, the following resolution was introduced and read and was adopted by the affirmative votes of all members present:

RESOLUTION.

WHEREAS, The City Clerk in making up the City Tax Roll for 1916 inadvertently omitted from such roll the assessment of the property of George L. Meissner, amounting to $39.70; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Meissner insists on paying such tax at this time rather than to have it go over until the following year; now, therefore be it

RESOLVED, That the Tax Collector be, and he hereby is, authorized to accept such tax, give a receipt therefor and make record in the tax roll of such collection.

Superintendent Henning presented a report of the sanitary analysis of water used in the City of Lodi made by the Bureau of Sanitary Engineering of the State Board of Health, which report was very favorable, stating that the samples submitted were exceptionally free of organic matter and regarded as thoroughly safe to health and satisfactory for drinking purposes.

Miscellaneous claims against the City amounting to $3979.28 were allowed and ordered paid.

Upon motion the Board adjourned until Wednesday, November 8, 1916, at 8:00 p.m.

Attest:

J. S. Clark
City Clerk.
